

Fredericksburg Presbyterian Church
Weekly Update
December 17, 2023

Greetings Fredericksburg Pres,

Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.

For the LORD is the great God,
the great King above all gods. (Psalm 95:1-3)

We are halfway through the Advent season. Last Sunday, the third Sunday in Advent, we lit the Shepherd's Candle, representing the JOY that caused the shepherds to say: "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." Cue the music, it may be time to burst forth in some worship and wonder of our own.

When Mary was first greeted by the angel she was "greatly troubled." How can this be? It is a great reminder that "nothing is impossible with God" for both Mary and Elizabeth were pregnant amid unlikely, supernatural circumstances.

Yet it brings forth a spiritual reality - that seems contradictory. Nothing is impossible for God, and still God does not do everything we would like, hope, or expect.

Mary responds to this with acceptance, "may it be as you have said." It is difficult to understand and accept the hard moments that come to us. As God's people, we boldly embrace that bigness of God and his promises to us. We ask for big things and good things. And when the reality does not bear out what we have asked for or imagined, we rest on faith, trusting that our big and good God is still at work even when we don't understand. He is unstoppable. Our lives are in his hands. And we dare not reduce him to what our own minds can imagine!

Let's be praying big - for our families, our community, and our church.

Let us receive our King,

Pastor Nancy
