Weekly Update

December 20, 2023

Dear Faithful,

As in... Come, all ye faithful (que the music) ... This is the week for which we have been waiting!

Last Sunday, the fourth candle was lit (and will be lit again as a “bonus” on this coming Sunday Eve morning, 9:30 AM). This Angels' candle reminds us that peace has come to the earth in the first coming of our Savior and we continue to hope for peace as we anticipate his return.

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.” (Luke 2:13-14)

After all the Advent anticipation, our Christmas hope will be realized as we celebrate the birth of this Christ child, two thousand years ago, in a stable manger. Join us at 8 PM for a candlelight celebration where we will light the tall, center, white Christ Candle, as well as candles throughout the room. For unto us a child is born...

We are people of hope. As this Advent season culminates in celebration on Christmas morning and for the 12 days that follow, let us reflect and receive our King.

In this moment, I want to tell you how much you mean to me. Your thoughtfulness, care and continuing encouragement have made serving you a joy and blessing in my life. Bryan and I send you warmest wishes of joy, that you know the warmth of your savior and the peace of belonging to him. May our community continue to be a place of belonging, peace, and praise.

With good news of great joy, Pastor Nancy

In the Kitchen - We are developing quite a collection of dishes in the kitchen (next to the roll up window). People have left casserole dishes, Tupperware, a crock pot and other assorted containers. If you would pick your items, it would help with the clutter on that kitchen counter.
