

The Weekly Update

Fredericksburg Presbyterian Church

March 20, 2024

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This coming Sunday is the beginning of Holy Week, which marks the end of Lent and covers the historical events leading up to the death and resurrection of Jesus. At FPC we will be celebrating Holy Week with regular Sunday worship services, Maundy Thursday worship and the special community sunrise service on Easter. Also you can follow the events of Holy Week with special Scripture readings in this Sunday's devotional provided with the worship bulletin. But as a reminder, here are the key highlights of how Scripture describes the week leading up to Easter Sunday.

Palm Sunday – the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. Jesus enters the city to the celebration and welcome of the crowds; but Jesus weeps as the people cheer, knowing that they are about to reject Him.

Monday – Jesus clears the Temple of money changers. As the people gather to hear Him, the religious leaders confront Him about His authority and try to trap Him in His words.

Tuesday – Jesus meets with His disciples on the Mount of Olives and has a long time of teaching and discussion as they talk about what is going to happen “at the end of the age”.

Wednesday – Nothing is specifically recorded on this day, although some scholars speculate that this is the day that Judas agrees with the religious leaders to betray Jesus.

Maundy Thursday – Jesus celebrates the Lord's Supper with His disciples in the Upper Room, He prays in the Garden of Gethsemane, is betrayed, arrested and put on trial by the Jewish authorities. His disciples all abandon Him; and by the time the rooster crows, Peter has denied Him and He is condemned by the ruling council.

Good Friday – at sunrise, Jesus is brought before Pontius Pilate to be judged. Despite finding no guilt in Him, Pilate orders Him beaten by Roman soldiers who mock and ridicule Him. Pilate eventually bends to the wishes of the Jewish crowd and orders Jesus to be executed on a cross. Jesus is crucified on a hill outside the city, and at 3pm, He gives up His spirit and dies on the cross. Before the sun sets, He is buried in an unused tomb and as darkness draws near, Passover begins.

Holy Saturday – the Sabbath. Jesus' friends and family mourn as guards are placed around the tomb where His body was laid.

Easter Sunday – at dawn, the women closest to Jesus go to care for His body at the tomb but find it empty. They report what they discovered, and the news of Jesus' missing body reaches the disciples who gather again in the Upper Room. Jesus appears to them there as word spreads of the Resurrected Christ.

It is my sincere prayer that this Holy Week you might again encounter the sorrow, wonder, joy and hope of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus; and that you might be strengthened to keep trusting Him wherever He leads us.

-Pastor Jos

And the First Place winner of our chili cook-off is Danny Brown. Second place ended in a tie between Melodie Stroud and Delores Schlegel And third place was the Team of Pastor Jos and Adam Swinehart. A big thank you to everyone who made chili and to all the "testers" who came and ate and voted. Later, after the winner was announced, tables of cards and board games appeared for a night of continued fellowship. Thank you to the Congregational Life Team for this organizing this fun evening.

MARION WORK DAY

The next Work Day in Marion is scheduled for 3/23/24. We will meet in the church parking lot at 7am and car pool out. All are welcome to enjoy a day of fellowship and support a great cause. The building is going to be named the Joyce A. Rogers Marion Community Center in memory of Pastor Cory's late mother. You can find more information on the Marion Hands of Hope Facebook page. We will be installing drywall on the walls we built last October. If we have enough help, we will also frame the walls for the exam rooms. If you have any questions and/or to sign up please contact Paul Miller 330-465-8329. Pastor Cory's church will again be providing breakfast and lunch. Be sure to sign up so we can let them know how many to plan for.
